

ENTERPRISES™ Abigail Moats is an International Orator, Professional and Motivational Speaker, Author, Trainer, Human Developer and President and CEO of QA Enterprises, L.L.C., a Full Service Communications Company with an emphasis on Business Development, Brand Identity and Marketing, National Empowerment Tours, Regional Seminars, Leadership Training and Publishing. Abigail conducts keynote addresses, provides consultation and training through leadership seminars, teaching and educating Small to Mid-Size Businesses, Women's Groups and other Leadership Organizations including Churches and Young People. Abigail enlightens organizations on the following: 'How To Communicate More Effectively in order to improve processes and business functions throughout their organization'; 'Resolve Communication Conflicts to Create Greater Team Synergy and Focus'; 'Provides Strategies and Creative Concepts on How To Market Your Small Business' and 'How To Access Your Greatness Through Your Words!'.

She has spoken to hundreds of thousands nationwide on various subjects such as Postponing Teen Sexual Involvement, Race Relations, Education, Business Branding, Sales Training and Development, Marketing and Thriving while Surviving in Life in general. Abigail is known as “The Communication Expert!”

She has hosted her own radio program and is featured regularly on other radio programs locally and nationally and has appeared on local and national television talk shows and networks, i.e., Fox Cable News and quoted in Allure Magazine, representing these very topics and is a sought-after presenter for her candid views and opinions. She is currently working on her on talk-show format.

Abigail Moats holds a Bachelor's degree in Communications and Marketing from the University of Cincinnati from which she is a native. She has spoken on behalf of the Mayor of Cincinnati at a local prestigious event and has won numerous oratorical debates and competitions as well as talent programs. She was a finalist in the Ms. Cincinnati Pageant and has spoken in hundreds of schools, universities and churches throughout her local community and nationwide. She is talented in dramatic arts and performance and has won cash prizes and honorary awards for her voluntary performances to schools and programs for at-risk youths. She is the recipient of the Xerox Award for Humanities & Social Sciences, The Honorary Award from Hillcrest Correctional Facility for Boys, The Honorary Award for “Helping Youths of the Revelation Baptist Church”. She was a Young Adult Ministry Leader and Facilitator at The Bethany Baptist Church and has worked with the Boys & Girls Club of Southern New Jersey.

In her professional career, she has been a Territory Manager for Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana and later the Mid-Atlantic Region for the Making It Count Programs speaking nationwide on the company's behalf. In her career as a Professional Pharmaceutical Sales Representative for 7 years, Abigail accomplished such professional feats as being the #1 Sales Representative for the Mid-Atlantic Region, received an honorary "Immediate Impact Award" for 400% Sales Growth in 1 Quarter, the #1 Sales Representative for the Philadelphia District, was featured on the company's audio and video trainings, was a presenter at their National Sales Meeting. She operated a solo-territory for new drug launches and reached over 225% of goal in the first 4 weeks of a Quarter. For all years of her Sales Career, Abigail has been in the top 1% of the Northeast region and top 10% of the nation for Sales Goal Attainment. She is currently a Sales and Marketing Consultant.

Her professional affiliations and clients include: The National Speaker's Association (NSA), National Sales Network (NSN), (NCBW), Minority Women in Business, the Urban League of Philadelphia, National MBA, Inc. (NBMBA), Motivating Mondays, Greater Cincinnati Women's Network (GCWN), United Way Women's Outreach, and The Racial Awareness Program (RAP) and Ardyss International.

Her Clients Include Honda Motor Company, University Stand UP MRI, Toyota Motor Company, Maxxis 2000, Drexel University, University of Penn, The Art Institute of Philadelphia, TeenShop, Bethany Baptist Church, Temple Church International, Fitness 3k Health Institute, National Congress of Black Women(NCBW), Riverside Correctional Facility to name a few and various other business and leadership organizations throughout the country.

2008, she released a powerful Audio CD, entitled: "Communicating With Power In Life, Love and Business To Maximize Your Greatness!" which received phenomenal testimonials and reviews nationwide and Authoring and releasing her 1st book entitled: "Communicate With Power In Life, Love and Business To Access Your Greatness!" in Early 2009 and creating and founding: The "Can We Talk?!" National Empowerment Tour. The tour launched in Philadelphia, PA October 2008, occurred again May 9th, 2009 at the Philadelphia Convention Center and will travel to major cities throughout the United States 2010.

The "Can We Talk?!" National Empowerment Tour consists of a team of Leaders, Trainers and Experts in the sectors of Finance, Life Skills and Small Business Building, and includes "The Communication Expert", Abigail Moats. The Tour empowers audiences with practical, proven and implementable tools and techniques to take control of their lives and fulfill their God-given destiny, teaching the attendees how to Access, and then Maximize their Greatness! Her latest Business Projects include Authoring her 2nd Audio CD and Book of the same name: "How To Communicate Past Your Pain Quotient!" which will be released December, 2009.

She credits her strong family and her spiritual upbringing that facilitated her personal relationship with God, as "Her Core". Her Credo is: "Empowering YOU To Have What YOU Say!!!" For Bookings Go To: www.AbigailMoats.com.